Avoid Supply Disruption with Quality Data and Insight

Make sure you have the materials, services, and partners to deliver. Get deep supplier data including demographics, financials, corporate family linkage, government and industry compliance status, and diversity classifications. The core subscription includes access to over 220 million supplier records with up to 250 data points, search/look-up capabilities, and more. Use powerful predictive scores including Supplier Stability Indicator (SSI), a proprietary D&B predictor of near term (90-120 days) financial and operational stability; and the D&B Supplier Evaluation Risk Rating (The D&B SER), which predicts the likelihood that a company will obtain legal relief from creditors or cease operations without paying creditors in full over the next 12 months.

ENHANCED ANALYTICS for Supplier Risk Manager

- ✓ Better dashboard visualization
- ✓ More robust data representation
- ✓ Improved user experience

“Part of the reason for the lack of supplier scorecard success is that firms often focus on the mechanics of getting scorecards implemented and neglect to focus on effectiveness. Supplier scorecards are most successful when deployed as part of an overall supplier evaluation business process.”

PSEG KEEPS THE LIGHTS ON WITH D&B SUPPLIER RISK MANAGER

Within six months of launching its supplier portal powered by D&B, PSEG had:

- 80% of its suppliers representing 80% of supplier spend on-boarded.
- Identified an additional $8 million in diversity spend through the enhanced visibility gained in the registration process.
- Cleaned its supplier list—duplicate and fraudulent suppliers were removed from the database, non-compliant suppliers were blocked, and emergency procedures were improved with updated contact information for all suppliers.
- Streamlined its annual SOX audits with solution reporting features that facilitated simpler quarterly reporting.

“The results we achieved with the implementation of our new supplier portal from D&B instilled a new confidence in the overall management of our supply chain with the PSEG leadership team,” said Joseph Jackson, Manager of Procurement Governance for PSEG.
