Transform Case Management with Better Collaboration

Discover how easier communication, effortless data insights, and improved information-gathering can push your toughest cases forward.

We're Your Force Multiplier

THE PROBLEM TODAY

Efficiency is challenged by disconnected and rigid agency processes, unsecured email communications, and lack of social media platform integration.

WHAT YOU NEED

Streamlined communications, accurate data-driven insights, and stringent security protocols help ensure investigation work and assets are safe and accessible.

WHY IT MATTERS

Sharing accurate business and criminal intelligence is crucial. Regardless of the scope of your investigation, agents benefit from software tools that enable smoother exchanges of more meaningful insights driven by diverse datasets.

THE SOLUTION

What we call a "force multiplier": bridging the gap between trustworthy data-tracking capabilities, powerful research tools that track relationships between businesses in your line of sight, and collaboration workforce software that keeps the team on the dot--at all times.

UNIFIED

A fresh perspective can turn the whole case around. D&B Investigate offers a new way to collaborate, free from administrative hurdles or security risks. All in one place.

SMARTER

More investigation and enforcement and less gathering and compiling. D&B Investigate provides a smooth, intuitive platform that pulls together critical data showing unique patterns and trends you won't find anywhere else.

TRUSTED

Leverage Dun & Bradstreet's extensive body of proprietary data. Drawing from multiple sources, D&B Investigate combines validated information with experienced industry support.
